“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Your mother was a lovely lady! Many of my fondest memories of my youth were spent in your home. Your mother never seemed to tire of the "slumber" parties with giggling, teenage girls staying up all night running back and forth to the kitchen for snacks! I remember her supplying us with peanut butter and jelly sandwiches, served through an open window, upstairs, while we sunbathed on the black tar roof! She made me feel warm and loved. I will always cherish those memories and often reflect back on them while raising my own children. It would be my hope that I can display to their friends, who visit in our home , even a fraction of the warmth, patience and many kindnesses that she showed me during those adolescent years. God bless her sweet soul! Love you, Kit! Your mom was amazing!
