“ I was 12 years old when Marian joined our family by marrying my brother Tom.

She had brought us a 5 pound box of chocolates the Christmas before - WOW that was a BIG deal!!!!

Marian was a Super Woman before that phrase became popular..

She was able to sew anything, cook everything, butcher a hog, and teach herself any trade or anything that needed to be done.

She grew up as a farm girl, working as hard as any man to do whatever needed to be done on the farm - pitch hay, milk cows, drive a tractor or horse if needed.

Marian made the most beautiful outfit for my daughter, her and Tom's godchild - It was a purple plaid pleated skirt with a cream knit shirt and she had crocheted a long hippy vest in lilac. I just wish I had saved the outfit but, Valerie loved the outfit so much she wore it out.

However, Marian made her a half dozen Barbie outfits in the 60s which Valerie still has kept stored in a suitcase in my basement!

Marian also made my sister's wedding dress which got double duty as the wedding dress of Gary's wife (Tom & Marian's son).

She was a strong mother, loving and inspiring her children and remembering Ricky every day of her life- as she once told me.

God may have made Eve from Adam's rib - but, I do believe Marian was Tom's backbone!

Marian was there to encourage, inspire and work alongside of Tom to accomplish their combined success.

As :Linda Rondstadt would have put it - Marian was a credit to her Gender!

God Speed Marian!
