“ I met Mariemma, through my daughter who was one of her therapist at Good Samaritan. What a lovely lady . Found out she rented my father bedroom from a grandmother that none of us grandchildren were able to meet. My brother & I visited with her & she shared stores of our grandmother & we both feel so blessed to have met her. I would of attended the viewing , but I was out of town that day. Our father was in the service & college, grandmother didn't drive, she helped her & enjoyed her. So glad she came into our lives. What a lady.

“ Mariemma was in Eastern Star with me. Even though she wouldn't take an officer position, she was always willing to assist in other ways. She always did it with a smile. She was a positive person.

“ Oh how I loved caring for Mariemma during my time at Northwood Assisted Living. She was the sweetest person. She was always kind and encouraging. I miss her. She often talked to me about going home. She was ready and she is free. My condolences to her family. I was so blessed to know her. Love you Mariemma.

“ I too knew Mariemma through Trinity Church and had the privilege of spending time together sharing long drives to South Carolina. I will always remember our conversations filled with her wit, wisdom and positive attitude. The last few years I would visit her whenever I returned to Jasper, and came away so blessed by her beautiful spirit.

“ I was privileged to have Mariemma as my godmother. Her lovely solo of "O, Holy Night" was the highlight of Trinity Church's Christmas Eve cantata for all my early years. Her sweet countenance will be missed. - Lynne Steinkamp Ehrgott

“ I have very fond, wonderful memories of Mariemma! She and Gene were very good friends of my parents, Bob and Betty Sunderman. She was a staple at Trinity UCC where I attended as a child. Just a beautiful lady--inside and out! May she rest in peace!

“ Mariemma was a loyal member of the Trinity Choir when Vic and I were the organist and choir director for 24 years. She was always supportive of us and was a kind and lovely, lovely woman. After we moved from Jasper, we didn't stay in touch, but she was certainly a part of our memories of our time there. Deepest sympathies to her family. I'm sure she will be missed.

Mariemma & I go a long way back. She moved to Jasper from Tell City IN working in my great uncle's insurance agency some 80 years ago. My father was serving in the U. S. Army, I was an infant, & my mother worked for her uncle assisting in his ins. agency with Mariemma for a short period of time. After I graduated from high school I was fortunate enough to work in another ins. agency where Mariemma was part-time employed working with her for 7 years. (I quit my employment when my 1st child was born.) She was the kindest, most helpful, very knowledgeable mentor & friend. Regret not being connected with her nearly as much as would have liked to although have kept in touch. She was always the sweetest friend~will truly miss her. Her family can be so proud of her

When I became pastor at Trinity United Church of Christ in 1978, Mariemma introduced herself and then identified herself as "The girl from Tell City". Over my 19 years at Trinity and in the years later during visits or phone calls, I teased her as "the girl from Tell City." She would smile and chuckle. I think she was proud of her Tell City roots and still lived her life to the fullest in Jasper. Such a faithful saint of the church - - always supportive...always encouraging...always involved. We think of Mariemma every Fall when Ruth bakes apple bread using a recipe from Mariemma. At the end of the recipe Mariemma noted "Emily (Platt) says Jonathan apples are best." What a blessing having known Mariemma!
