“ My condolences to you and the family. I hope you are healing well. I don't think you probably don't remember me but I was a close friend of Michael, and have met Mark a few times. Keep smiling, because he is smiling at you from above.

“ My friend and I grew up together. We played with Hot Wheels & Matchbox cars and played crossfire & listened to Elton John's Philadelphia Freedom on 45's.
He almost blew off his fingers from firecrackers behind Eagle Day camp.
His parents taught me how to take care of myself.
We were Huckleberry Finn & Tom Sawyer
We camped, went to concerts, worked, lived went to the beach ate shared everything including our blood.
I kept him alive at times ensuring he would take his medicine.
I was there when his father passed and his mother remarried.
He was in my wedding party. We explored NYC when we were way too young.
We delivered newspapers together and went skiing.
We talked every week when he moved away.
He loved his brother and the fact he actually had a nephew.
He loved his fiends Jeff & Greg & Larry & Randi
He loved his music YES, Steely Dan, Genesis & Many others.
He loved the races and invested in NASCAR many years ago.
Most of all he loved his mother and I know how happy he was to have seen her on his first ever plane trip to Florida.
He kept my hope alive when it seemed there was no hope.
He is not replaceable. With his loss I am weak. I am humbled.
He suffered and I lived this was not fair and I told him so. He would say Jeffrey never stop living.
I won't, because he made me promise to keep the faith.
He was my best friend and I will keep his memories alive till the day I go and meet him again.

“ Judy, we send our sincere sympathies to you and your family. As others, we were shocked by this tragic end. It seems Mark was beginning to get ahead of the game for himself the past several years, and we know the role you played. Our last visit with him (and you) was at Jack and Anne's in July, 2007 (Mom's auction). Drake, our grandson, who was with us, remembers Mark (he slept on the living room floor with him) as the guy with the eye patch. He also was shocked to learn someone he met, and remembered, had died. We won't be able to attend the funeral, but wanted you to know our prayers are with you. The loss of a child is a heart tearing thing in one's life. We're supposed to die first. Keep your chin up, and know that you did your best, but God had other plans. Hope to see you in March in Florida, during our vacation.
