“ We are so so sorry that Marlene passed so early! I am sure that no matter how long God allowed her to be with us, it would never have been enough! She was an angel here on earth for so many people and she still means a lot to us for all the help and care she gave to our Mom. There were many late nights when I would call mom's and the line would be busy for long periods of time. I would call your mom to check on my mom and she would put her housecoat on and shoes and run over to moms only to find her with the phone off the hook and asleep in her chair. Your mom never complained no matter if it was 10:30 at night! My mom depended on her a lot. Just knowing that Marlene was across the yard gave mom much comfort. I use to call your mom "an angel" and rub your mom on her back and say "Yup, I feel your wings a sprouting, you Angel!" She'd just laugh. Ralph, you two were a team! I always envied how you gardened together and put up the produce! I wish things didn't have to change so much.

God bless you all! God's comfort be with you!
