“ Dear Family, I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loss. I am a long term care insurance representative, and I had the pleasure of meeting Ellen last year around september/october to help her with planning for her long term care needs. I still remember pulling in the driveway, getting out of my car and hearing the music blasting, as she was inside doing something. I quickly came to find out she was a talker, which was great. We probably sat for 3 hours talking about everything, including what I was there for. What a life she had and the stories. When I received a letter today from my company with the news of her passing, I felt the need to say a few words. I will miss her even though we only met for a short time. Take care.

“ *Dear Nicole, Erin, Keller and Boehman family members, I don't have appropriate or soothing words to reach out and touch any sad thoughts you may be having. All I know for sure is losing a loved one hurts and that I am genuinely sorry I'm unable to attend Ellen's funeral. In my memories Ellen will remain as a devoted, loving, committed and wonderfully unique friend. I was blessed to have her in my life for 30 years and we shared much laughter and many interests along the way....she was simply the BEST in every way possible !! Please know how deeply sorry I am for your loss. With deepest sympathy and love, Karen Horton

“ Dearest Erin, Nicole, and other family,
This morning I recieved the news of Ellen's passing. I can not express the feeling I have regarding her death. She ment the world to me. Although we only spent a year together in Phoenix, she made such an incredible impact on me and my life. As you wrote, Nicole, she was a wonderfull person who never judged people, she was funny, very bright and very open-minded.
Again, I'm shocked, intently sad and I wish I could be with you!

“ Dear Family, as the mother of Thijs, I too would like to expresse my condolences with the passing of Ellen. I know how dear she was to Thijs and I also felt a specal bond to this special woman. When Ellen came over to The Netherlands for the wedding of Thijs and Mieke she stayed at my place and we had a wonderfull time talking about gardening and about the greater things in life. She was a great thinker, concerned about those who needed help, weary of race, color, religian etc, and that made conversation with her interesting. I hope you all will find strenght in knowing that even far away in Europe people loved her.
