“ To the whole Kuczynski family, Our deepest sympathy on the loss of a great Lady. She was always such a joy to talk to, and to listen to that thick accent that she kept no matter how many years she was here. Loved hearing her tell stories of the Kuczynski/Kunkel growing up years.

She seemed to always have a smile on her face and in her voice when ever I would stop and talk to her. We know you will always miss this wonderful woman but she has left you with many great memories. Stan & Deb Kunkel

“ To Irene and the family of Mary Kuczynski, My deepest sympathy on the loss of your Mother. She was a dear and interesting lady who I talked with several times at the nursing home while visiting my Mother Leona Kluemper. She was nice to my mother as well when they talked. May she rest in peace and may God bless you and give you strength as this time, but I believe Jesus has been waiting for her and she is home!
