“ Among many other things, I will always remember my dear Aunt Mary Jane's voice. First, I loved her accent, and when she spoke, her speech was soft and calming. I can still hear how she said my name. When ever I spoke with her on the phone, (most recently when Dad died in January) she would always say she loved me. The world just lost the most beautiful, elegant, giving, and genuine lady. She had not a selfish bone in her body. May she rest in peace. God be with my Uncle Paul and my dearest cousins: Gayle, David and Brian, and their precious children as they move through this time of grief.
