“ *I wanted to convey my deepest sympathy to the family and friends who have lost their beloved Mattieline. I have lost ones very dear to me and know the pain felt at such times. In 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 it brings out that "the God of all comfort" comforts us so that we might be able to help comfort others. That is why I wanted to write to you today. I have found the hopes and promises held out to us by our Heavenly Father and recorded for us in His word, to be a source of true encouragement and comfort. In John 11:11-44 we read of Christ Jesus resurrecting his friend Lazarus right before the very eyes of Lazarus' family and those who had come to console them. We can imagine what a joyous time this was for all. We have this same hope. In John 5:28,29 Jesus said "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". In Revelation 21:3,4 and Isaiah 25:8 God has promised that soon "death will be no more" that he will "swallow up death forever". How wonderful this will be! These and other scriptures (Acts 24:15 and Psalms 37:11,29 and Psalms 55:22)are a real source of encouragement to me and I truly hope that they are to you as well. Please continue to look to the love and support of those around you and to our Heavenly Father "the God of all comfort". Again, I am so sorry for your loss. With Sincere Sympathy,
Becky Lynn*
