“ Maxine was a dear friend from the time I came to work at Memorial Hospital in 1991. She helped me to hone my skills on computer. We shared many great times together. I spoke with her last Sunday by phone and was amazed that she recognized my voice. I am saddened to hear of her death and know what a great loss it is for you her family. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

My memories are of years ago when I was a child in the 50s and Maxine was a teenager dating Charles. I thought she was so pretty - and she was. She was always kind to me. I loved her smile and laugh! And Charles kept her laughing with his crazy sense of humor! I was the flower girl in their wedding Just last year, we reconnected in many phone conversations which we both enjoyed. She loved you boys dearly and your families.
