“ My deepest condolences to all of Missy's family & friends.

Missy, I'm so sorry to hear this. I just found out yesterday you were gone. When I think of you, I remember your laugh & you going full speed in life. You couldn't sing but it didn't stop you from singing every song on the radio-loudly! You are one of a kind. Thanks for the memories-most ended with laughing so hard we cried. If you & I talked right now, we'd talk about some of those memories like taking your cool, old black & white truck out in the snow & turning a corner & one of the doors flying open every time. We'd giggle again like we did when we were 17. Rest well Missy. Enjoy heaven with your Mom and Dad. Love, Ann

When I think about you I always think of our races in grandpa Franks pool. I always said I lost because I was littler than you, let's face it, you were a brickhouse and always kicked my butt in any sport. It's a shame life gets in the way and families drift apart. Tell Hot's, Joanne and grandpa and grandma hello for me.
