“ Lynne, my sincere condolences. Mike was my Army buddy. My life took a different course because he told me his plans to enlist and I took the plunge with him. I was always very proud that he finished first in his Vietnamese class at DLIEC, and I recall how disappointed he was that he did not get to go to Saigon and experience the country and its people first hand. I have thought of him more of late since one of my nephews married a Vietnamese girl; I just recently told them his and my story. I was shocked to learn of his passing. You will be in my thoughts.

“ Our deepest sympathy to you, Lynne.

Martha and I were shocked to hear of Mike's death. We immediately shared memories of Mike and prayed for his repose. He rests in the Lord's abundant mercy now.

I'll never forget Mike's typical greeting to me -- a booming "Big Boy" and a firm handshake.

May his memory be a blessing to you for all your days. Grace and peace.
