“ Angie, Our hearts are so heavy for you and Trenton right now. I pray that you will be strengthened by the Lord and that you will turn to Him for your every need. There is no way for us to know your pain but we love you and pray for the Lord to provide for your physical and spiritual needs in the coming days. You and Mike had a relationship that is rare these days and I am so glad to have witnessed the love you had for one another. Hang on to those memories as they are a most valuable treasure.
