“ Dear Bret, Bruce, Brad, Bernie, Blake, Mark, and Audrey, We were so saddened to hear from Dad and Kurt that you lost your beloved Mom on Monday. We send you our deepest condolences. As her niece, I will always remember her lavishing encouragement and kindness on everyone around her. We are praying that your strong faith will help you bear losing her, and that your shared memories will bring you peace and strength.

Our love and sympathy,
Chris and Todd Curtis and family

“ We were deeply saddened to hear of Aunt Rosie's passing. We are so happy that we were able to attend the reunion this past two years and visit with her and other relatives that we have not seen as much as we would have like to. We are having a mass said for her at our church. I can still see "Sister Rose" at the reunion a couple of years ago. She was so much fun! Rest in peace, Aunt Rosie.
