“ Cherri/Joe - Please accept my condolences for the loss of your father. I am in Columbus helping my daughter with her newborn baby girl. God Bless you and all of your family during this difficulty time. It's never easy to think about life without our parents and to know that we become the elder mentors/guides for the younger generations - such the cycle of life continues revolve. Know that our thoughts and Prayers are with you today and throughout this difficult time.

“ John and I are so very sorry for the loss of Morris. It was such a very hard thing to process, hearing from Debbie so suddenly that he passed away. Even though we ourselves were surrounded by all of our family during Easter, here in North Carolina, my thoughts stayed focused on YOUR family, knowing exactly what you were feeling, knowing the pain that couldn't be described and the emptiness inside that he was gone from you so quickly and unexpectedly. But I also know that Morris is healed, he is in paradise, and will one day be joined with his loved ones again. May God give you that special "peace" that only He can give during this hard, hard moment in your lives. Cherish your "happy thoughts" and the many memories of such a wonderful man, who left a legacy of such large family who can be here to support each other. We can't be there physically, but spiritually we are with you.

*In Christian Love,
John and Pam Bagwell
North Carolina*
