“ Nelda, friended me when I married Larry, her neighbor. She always had time to talk. We discussed everything room soup to nuts, and religion. She shared some of her recipes and stories about the area as I came from Jasper, I had never lived in the country. I will miss her very much. Larry and I loved visiting her. She was just a wonderful person to share this world. Larry and I are sorry that we are not able to make the funeral 🥹 as we are out of town. Please no that we will be thinking of you and keeping all of you in our prayers 🙏❤️ Carol and Larry Zehr
