“ Harley, while looking you up I discovered the tragedy you and your family have gone through. My deepest sympathy and prayers are with you. Many years ago you and I spent time together in Scotland and I recall our conversation about your children, how proud and loving you talked about them. May God be with you. While it has been a long time since we have seen each other please reach out to me if I can do anything for you or your family. You were always an inspiration to me and while I never met Nick, reading what others say about Nick he was an inspiration to many as well. Gary

“ To all of Nicks family and friends, I am so sorry for the loss. My prayers are with each and every one of you. I was fortunate enough to have known Nick for a couple of years. I just received word today that one of my best friends is gone. Nick and I shared some incredible times snowboarding, playing basketball, and simply enjoying life. I would have never thought I'd meet a fellow Florida State grad in Indiana. We both shared our passion for life, God, music, and the Seminoles. I have comfort in knowing that he had a strong spritual foundation. Nick touched so many lives and could have you laughing in your darkest moments. For all of us that knew Nick, he always brought comfort and a smile. I can imagine right about now he would tell us, as only Nick could, to "chill, I'm fine", or "relax, it's gonna be ok". Like all of you, I will miss him tremendously. Ebert family, please contact me if you need anything at all or just want to talk. (812) 205-3885.

“ Friends and Family of Nick Ebert: My husband spent one day with Nick in a delivery truck for Jasper Engines in early Oct. 2013. He talked to Sam all day long about his thoughts and feelings about God. When my husband shared his heart about the victorious abundant life God desires to give, Nick listened with intense interest. Sam mentioned a good devotional to him. He said, "Wait let me write that down." At the funeral, Sam saw the book Nick had evidently purchased, "My Utmost for His Highest." Nick came to a service to hear a minister who is reaching the homeless in Washington D.C. and showed great interest in a Christian life beyond the nominal. Our prayer...that through his death others will be drawn to the find the God that Nick was hungering after.

“ *Dear Tara and Family, Words alone can't express the sadness that fills my heart for your tragic and untimely loss. Maxine talked to me about Nicks endearing qualities and how much fun you would all have at Thanksgiving I hope that some of these wonderful memories will help get you through this very difficult time. All my love,

“ Tara and the entire Ebert family, My heartfelt condolences. I did not have the honor to know Nick, but I know his sister Tara. Tara represents the best that a person can be, and I am absolutely sure that Nick did as well. Our Christian faith allows us a wonderful inheritance when we go home to live in paradise with our Lord and Savior. My heart goes out to the Ebert family and my thoughts and prayers are with you. God Bless you and stay strong in Christ.

“ Over the past two days there have been many expressions of love, loss and heartache. Those of us who were fortunate enough to have Nick in our lives were all touched by him. Harley & Monica, Tyson & Tara, may you be comforted in knowing that Nick had touched so many, so deeply. The Beatles said ...”And in the end the love you take is equal to the love you make”Nick takes with him a piece of all of us who loved him and we will surely never forget the love that he made....
Much love, Maxine

“ Our family was very saddened to hear about Nick's passing. We are neighbors of Joni & Greg and we know how much he meant to their family. When he worked out here on the farm he just sorta fit right in...always waving as he drove by on the tractors. Please know that we will be keeping your family in our prayers at this very difficult time.
