“ Many years ago, I was with my Uncle Norbert in Jasper, to pick up some farm supplies. Since I was from out of town, Heck, out of state, no one in the area knew me. We stopped at the Sunset Tavern and immediately, the bar maid opened a can of Weideman and set it in front of him. She then asked what I would like. I replied, "You probably don't have what I want". She told me to try so I asked for a Falls City. She glared at me, looked at my Uncle Norbert and said, " I thought you'd never get here!" Norbert was about to bust, laughing so hard. The bar maid said "I have had these six cold ones in my cooler for two weeks and nobody asked for one. You can have them all! On me!"
