“ To the family of Oleta Sendelweck, You are all in my thoughts and prayers this week. Oleta's passing is like losing my "second mom." Oleta loved me as she served as my godmother. She welcomed me in her home. She taught me cleaning and how to work, as we did annual cleaning at her house and at Amelia Arnold's. We went to the county fairs together and we laughed together. Besides my having three Freyberger brothers, Oleta insured that I also had three Sendelweck "big brothers" too. I will miss her. I regret that I can not be with you for this time of grief and farewell. Sad with you, with love and appreciation of Oleta. Marty (Freyberger) DeBruin (On the other side of the world)
