“ I first met Patty in the first grade at Ireland Grade School. There are so many memories. I remember sitting in classes next to her and the other B girls, Linda Bleemel, Judy Burress. The 14 Ireland Girls of 1967 were a good group. We have remained friends and supported each other through the years. This is a sad year for us, as we have lost 3 of our girls. Patty's life was truly a gift for all of us. We will all have many more tears, but we need to keep in mind her positive look on life.

“ We bonded first by enjoying our son's baseball games and cheering them on to semi-state twice! Shortly after graduation our sons left for Marine bootcamp together. We traveled together to Louisville to send them off...this was one trip I'll never forget! We cried most of the way home! We were so proud of them as they graduated boot camp a few months later and cried again when we had to send them off to be deployed. We did a lot of praying for our boys and Patty became a wonderful friend! I was so saddened to hear that she passed away! It is with sympathy and love that I'm thinking of George and Brian during this difficult time, and I hope it will bring peace to both of you that someday you will meet again! I know you realize how special she truly was, however she is special not only in your eyes, but in others as well!

*Thinking of you!

“ I met Patty in rehab when recovering from a heart attack. That was 12 years ago, and anytime I saw her after that, she was still checking up on me and trying to nurse me back to good health. I saw her at church just a couple of weeks ago and had the opportunity to talk with her. She looked great, although she herself was facing daily battles, but still her first comments to me, were to ask how I was doing. She was a truly amazing person and I will certainly miss my "private nurse" cheering and encouraging me on.
