“ As tomorrow comes, I won't be among the crowd, but I will be there in spirit remembering all the good times we had together, the hitching post, California, Dyer and finally Jasper. I think back to all the antique shops we hit and the garage sales. The kids playing together ❤️ and growing up . I have a heart ❤️ full of great memories, I love you and will miss you deeply , tell Bill I love him and miss him more than words can say. Until we meet again !

“ I was that kid that hung on to the side of my Mom's leg and cried when she tried to walk out the door. I was very timid as a kid and the ONLY person I would stay with was Aunty Patsy. I don't know how she did it, but she always made me feel comfortable. I'll never forget the stage set up in the basement in Dyer and we would sing. During one of my stays at the house in Dyer, I remember seeing a poster of Elvis hanging in her bedroom and crying, because I wanted it and she took it off the wall and gave it to me. She was really one of a kind, amazing!! I also remember her loving the song Dirty Deeds Done Dirt Cheap by ACDC and I will always think about her when I hear that song. I'm not very good with words, but Aunty Patsy you were special and will be missed. I LOVE YOU!!

“ Aunt Patsy was a fire cracker! She was so full of life. She always made me feel important, like I mattered, even though I was a kid! As an adult and taking my kids there she always had something fun for us to do. Memories made!!

I loved when she made her skinny pancakes and for many years I didn't know that they were crepes. We used to go swimming at the house in Dyer, which was fun. She always made u feel that u were welcome and belonged right there. Dinners at the Jasper house were always centered at the big table in the kitchen. The table was set and anything u needed was right there. Then clean up came and I would say can I help and the response was almost always No. Aunt Patsy and Uncle Larry worked as a team to get it done. Their marriage is one for the history books. It was full of love, respect and a true partnership. What a gift that was.

Our whole family will certainly miss her vibrant light.

Uncle Larry and family, I am so sorry for ur loss. I know words cannot take the pain away as I wish it could.

“ I am so sorry to see your Mom go but I know she is whole again and, as others mentioned here, laughing it up with her family that went before her. I hate she had to go through what she did! She had a special Angels in her kids, especially her daughter! Now Jeanne has her Mom as her special Angel!! You are in my thoughts and prayers! Much love to the family!

“ It’s so hard to believe Pat is no longer with us. She was full of life. This past year as I cared for her she warmed up to me and was always happy to see me. Pat always had such a wonderful personality and always laughed so easily with me. I will never forget your kindness and hugs that you would give so easily.

“ My mom and her sister, my Aunt Pat, set out on a long journey with me and my sister, DeAnn. They took turns driving from California to Indiana. On our journey, there was a lot of laughter in the car and hotels we would stay at. Aunt Pat had a lot of funny stories, and a lot of funny jokes. I had a lot of fun watching my mom and her sister my Aunt Pat play along, sing to music in the car and make jokes and they would make us laugh. Once we arrived in Indiana Aunt Pat and Uncle Larry let us stay with them until our place was ready to move into. Their house was always filled with laughter, games and love. I got to see just how much aunt Pat adored uncle Larry, and their two kids, Jeannie, and David. I always told Aunt Pat that I wanted a marriage like the one she and Uncle Larry had. Aunt Pat thought me a lot about what goes into a loving marriage and to this day I try to replicate that with my husband. Thank you aunt Pat for all the wonderful things you did for us and for all the wonderful things you taught me. I will always love you aunt Pat and I will always remember the wonderful time we got to spend with you. You are a beautiful soul, I love you. May your memories be a blessing.
