“What can I say about Aunt Patty that most don't already know. She loved her family, especially her brothers and sisters. She was very close to my Grandma Delores Schuler, her sister. They lived very close to each other. To me, Aunt Patty's house was the big house on the hill looking down at Grandma's house. I will never forget the one story Aunt Patty told me about Grandma Delores's funeral that I never knew which was how Grandma Delores would always roll and cut noodles at every wedding in the family even her own. I still get a smile and appreciate Aunt Patty for sharing that with me. I also remember all the quilting bees that Grandma Schuler had when making home sewn quilts when I was younger and Aunt Patty was always there with all of their sisters and Grandpa Schuler's sisters to make the quilt. I remember those with so much love. To Aunt Patty's kids, Grandkids and Great Grandkids, you have my deepest sympathies and prayers and hope these memories comfort you in this most difficult time!

“Aunt Patty was always such a bright, BRIGHT light! Always smiling, loving on the family, sharing her signature laugh. And now she is with our Maker and family, doing it all for eternity! My heartfelt condolences to the entire family — may the warmest of memories be comforting to all during this sad time.
