“ Pat or “Jake” was “every man” to me and those who had the privilege to know him. Good friend, loving father and husband, and great professional colleague. He shall be tremendously missed by all - even those who just met him. I shall particularly miss his sense of common sense. What a guy! Rest In Peace.

“ “Jake” was one of the first of friends made at Farbest in 1989 and my boss. His passion for always bringing out the best in people and always with a laugh and a smile. You have left a huge hole at Farbest and in the people who knew you. We will continue to make you proud. My sympathy and love go out to Deb and the family. Rest In Peace. Robin Pate

“ I loved going to Uncle Bob and Aunt Josie’s house and spending time with everyone! Pat was always so sweet to take me fishing and up to Grandma Jac’s house with him. I remember playing games in the basement and outside running around. Even that little dog too....such great memories!!! You all have my deepest sympathies.

“ Are condolences go out to the whole family... Jake was a great man, he was always there to help if needed or just to set and talk and yes he loved to play poker...Jake is the man that talked me into coming to work at Farbest back in 1987 and I'm been with him ever since. I will dearly miss him but never forget him...God Bless the family and if you need me I'll be there for you...RIP Jake.

I always loved Pat's smile. He was a very good soul, God bless his heart & soul. I remember as a kid playing at his Grandma's house upstairs. We rode her quilt horse like they were our horses. I'm sure we drove her crazy with the noise. She would holler up and say that was enough. God bless them. Pat's cousin Rosie from Kentucky

My heart is broken for Deb and the Jacob family over the loss of such a wonderful man....I can "see" his smile and that memory will remain a treasure for me.

I read this verse years ago and it was a comfort for me and a message of everlasting love for a wife to her husband..

"You were my soul...I have seen it's shape and it was you... You have walked in my heart and I hear the echo of your footsteps there...Sleep softly my Husband..."

Thinking of you Deb....and sharing in your heartbreak.... with sympathy....Linda McIntosh
