“ A couple of my favorite memories..... 1) Could we present any more new products at Blyth for them to just reject? But they LOVED the meetings.... 2) Begging me to go to the Taj Mahal and finding vendors near so I would finally make the trek. 3) Being upgraded to first class from Portugal....I will never forget the grin on your face. We had been traveling 3 weeks and exhausted. I said I was going to sleep and you said I'm not sleeping a moment, I want to get the full experience....more champagne please! 4) White knuckles for every drive through India....especially in the South. You hated those car rides and you were always so jealous I could sleep like a baby. Whoa...watch out for that elephant that we almost hit. 5) Your smile and hugs will be very missed. I'm so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with you and your family.

“ Your family is my prayers as you work through the loss of Paul. He and I worked together at Roman quite some time ago. Paul brought joy to his work and I enjoyed his sense of humor. It was a pleasure working with him and he is missed. My deepest sympathy. Julie Puntch
