“ How do we understand a passing?
Expressing that which is inexpressible at times mutes us. Let the words of poet Mary Oliver offer light and understanding:
To live in this world
you must be able to do three things:
to love what is mortal;
to hold it against your bones knowing your own life depends on it;
and, when the time comes to let it go,
to let it go. - from “In Blackwater Woods”

My sympathy to you and your family, Sharon Williams.
