“ *I Remember Jounior very well, me and my brother Rob were just a kids but Jounior a bartering friend of our parents would pop in occasionally out at our farm in Boonville and no matter what everytime he would open up his truck and give me and by Brother sodas, I remember once Rob and I were down the road fishing at the creek and Jounior pulled up (I guess he had been to the house) But never it never failed he stopped and opened his truck and let us grab a soda, I remember his rosey complexion and the fact I was as tall as he was at that time, Jounior, We Thank you for all the Sodas and your Kindness.
