“ Rhonda was always a cheerful, caring and helpful good friend. She went on many vacations with my sister Lou and I. I'll never forget a New York trip when her cigarette set fire to the back seat. Our Guardian Angels were busy that day. My sympathy to the Garland family. Soar on Eagles Wing's Rhonda, Soar on.

“ Rhonda was such a cheerful giver and helper. When she saw a need, she pitched in without even being asked. She made the world a happier, a better, and a more compassionate place, and a world of people join her family in mourning her loss, but Heaven is brighter today with a new star.

My sincere sympathies are shared with Rhonda's mom, Lucille, and brothers Ron and Joe and their Families. Rhonda had just called me the previous Sunday to let me know about the 55th Class Reunion we missed last year due to the virus, was now scheduled for Sept. 11th this year. We had some 'catch-up' conversation and wished each other well until then. I was saddened to hear the news. R.I.P. Rhonda!
