“ I love you Ricky Jo my buddy growing up not just a cousin but a brother because I had no brothers since I was the tomboy of the family loved doing things with all my boy cousins but he was the one I always got in trouble with at grandma And grandpa Kings. But he always talked me into breaking the eggs in the egg house tearing up the coon hides in the smokehouse and switching clothes at a young age he always said no one would notice I wasn't him and he wasn't me I think we was like 4. Just so so many fun great memories with my sweet cousin . You are pain free happy and sitting at Jesus table on those golden streets and your beautiful mansion fishing in the crystal clear waters of Heaven Enjoy your new life until we see each other again I will always love you Billie Jo

“ So sorry to hear about Rick. I worked with him for a few years at Sherwin Williams Co. He always had a positive jovial attitude! Plus he was also my paper delivery guy for a couple of years recently!
