“ Ramona

Dave and I will miss Bob and his easy smile and sense of humor. He always was ready for a visit...and a tour of his woodworking projects. You and your family were so blessed to have him in your lives. He will always live in the hearts of those whose lives he touched.

We will be keeping you and your family in our thoughts.

“ *Ramona and girls.....occasionally we came across Bob outside when we walked past your house. He always had a kind word to say, and lit up when we asked about the girls. (At different times, I think they all babysat for us). Your family was truly blessed to have him for so many years. Sending our sympathy to your family as well as a smile to remember him by.
