“ Terry, Randy, Mary Beth, and Anne Therese,

Little did I know that when I met your dad almost 50 years ago, he'd remain a friend for life. But that was the way he was...warm and caring to all he met. He loved a good laugh (and laughed often), was generous with his time for others, and was solid as a rock...genuine. But most importantly, he absolutely beamed when talking about all of you and your families...so proud of you all. A special man who will hold a special place in many hearts...including mine.

*With sympathy,

“ Randy and family,
Mike and I want to express our sympathy of your father's passing. Now I know why I missed seeing him and you at the Brookside summer picnic with your little ones. Giggles was there ready to greet them and see how u all were getting along. He will rest in peace knowing all the love you showed him during his struggles and with raising you all. God bless! “ Bob was one delightful fellow! I had the pleasure of getting to know and love him over the last 6 months. His heartwarming stories of growing up in a simple farming community in our area, touched me, and reminded me, of how a wholesome upbringing (which often included hard work and struggles) make all the difference. This genuine man, raised a terrific family, served his country well, and accomplished great things in his life!! Blessings to the family to such a wonderful man!!!

“ Terry, Randy, Mary Beth, and Anne,

My deepest sympathy to you and your family for the loss of your dad. I'll never forget his driving past our house, and yours, blowing his loud horn as he was leaving on another trucking trip.

Yes, those were some great times. Dad had to give up a lot of family time to ensure his family was cared for.
