“ So many wonderful memories. One that comes to mind is when Mom told Dad and Gavin to stay at the park and they snuck over to the store to get a toy anyways. Hard telling which one had the idea to do so ha. I will also never forget him going down the pool slide and shouting, “weeeeeee” at the age of 65. I loved watching Dad enjoy the grandkids. He often times was a kid at heart. Dad was a great person and will be missed.

“ My sympathy goes to all of Bob's family. I remember playing at the park next to his house.

Also, looking at and watching his pigeons he had in his backyard coop. Always a nice person.

Bob was a good friend all through school and beyond. We grew up together in the same neighborhood and had so many good, memorable times. He was also a groomsman in my wedding many years ago. Bob will be greatly missed. May you rest in peace, Bob. His family is in our thoughts and prayers.
