

Robert L. Nalin

February 3, 1932 - December 5, 2015

Dateline Thomasville, GA

Robert L. Nalin, age 83 of Thomasville, GA, passed away peacefully on Saturday (December 5, 2015) at his home.

Robert was born in Jasper, Indiana on February 3, 1932 to Cletus P. and Mildred B. (Burch) Nalin. He married Maureen P. Harvey, on May 25, 1966, at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, Dublin, Ireland.

He was a proud veteran of the United States Air Force during the Korean Conflict, and was assigned to classified mission projects. He was a graduate of Jasper High School, and attended Oklahoma State University, and Joye's Business School in Thomasville, GA.

For over 50 years he owned and operated Thomasville Chemical Products Company, as manufacturer, distributor and later, repackager of laundry and beauty supplies. His customers knew him affectionately as the "Bleach Man."

Bob was a family man. He loved sports, particularly baseball, softball, and basketball. He was an ace pitcher for the Knights of Columbus in Jasper, Indiana, and the Air Force, where he pitched no-hitters in the National League. He played for the Warner Brother's team in the YMCA Men's Softball League, in Thomasville. He was Assistant Scoutmaster for Troup 333 in Thomasville, and an avid Braves fan.
