“ It is a sad day on Earth when a next door neighbor Mom is laid to rest. But, what a happy day in Heaven, for Dr. Dan and all. Great memories growing up next to the Berger household! Years after the frenzied kid stuff subsided, we could always count on Jackie to bring over a Christmas treat of her world famous turtles. The Bergers were great neighbors and wonderful role models for us all. Chris, Greg, Tom & Terri, hugs to you all.

“ Laurel and Maxwell really loved their trips to visit GG (great grandma Berger). Everything from GG giving them goldfish crackers, pushing and riding in GG's wheelchair and the 3 fun stuffed animals that they raced to get ahold of at each visit. ...Laurel liked to make sure that GG had a stuffed animal to hold on to! We love you and will miss our visits with you GG!!

“ My mom loved her little sister, my Aunt Jackie and I did too. We lived in California my whole life so we didn't get to visit like we would had we been closer. But I loved how she kept her family close and being a wife and mother were so important to her. I could tell when I did visit the family how loved she was by her children and that is the highest praise any woman can get. God bless you all my cousins! I know you will miss her terribly.

"She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children rise up and call her blessed her husband also, and he praises her"
