How would I describe Rocky:

Very strong willed, brave, athletic, energetic, a daredevil, loved exploring and traveling, adventurous, prankster, never wanted to sit down and do nothing, would never turn down a dare or a challenge, loved fast sports cars, very hard-working and he would do anything in the world for his children.

My Favorite Memories of Rocky:

It definitely would be when we would travel together!

We had so many fun adventures exploring so many beautiful and sometimes magical locations!

He had a love for snow so when we were children and the first snowfall covered the ground we put our snowsuits on and we would hike on the road to the top up of hill of our Motel and see who could go the furthest down the winding path without running into a car or tree!

Of course he would always win because it didn't bother him to get a couple scratches and bruises.

When we were old enough to start traveling we would explore many different ski resorts he was in search of the most impressive ski slopes he could find!

From the stunning mountains in Vermont where my older sister Chrissy lives, to the impressive slopes at Telluride and breathtaking ski runs in Deer Valley.

He was a much better skier than I am!

He and Hank didn't have a problem facing their fears they would leave me on the bunny slope while I was getting a lesson with the little five and six-year-old children and they would dash off to the greens, the blues and the black diamonds.

Rocky would go one step further and do the moguls!

*He also loved the exhilaration of going snowmobile riding.
I remember a trip he and his kids came with Hank and I to Deer Valley we were having an amazing day trail riding through the gorgeous mountains however at some point in every snowmobilers life comes the urge to fly launching into the air!
An exciting yet sometimes painful activity no one got hurt that day but you could hear me yelling Rocky slow down 1 million times!*

Another trip to Deer Valley Hank and I along with my two daughters Meranda and Shelby as well as Rocky we're exhausted after a full day of skiing so me and the girls got in the hot tub outside while it's snowing.

The ground was covered with white fluffy snow and snowflakes falling on us while we're warm and cozy in the hot tub it was A magical moment until I asked Hank to take a picture of us and mischievous Rocky comes outside and starts throwing snowballs at us while Hank is snapping pictures you could hear him laughing a mile away!!

What I wouldn't give to hear that mischievous laugh again.

Another incredible trip we took together was when he and I took all of his kids to the Cayman Islands not only did we explore the island but we did every activity they had to offer!

From feeding iguanas in or backyard at our villa, to swimming with dolphins and stingrays, Snuba diving which is a combination of snorkeling and scuba diving, to parasailing over the crystal blue waters.

it was a trip I'll never forget.

I will continue to look up at the sky and talk to you as well as going on adventures exploring this incredible world and take you along in my heart❤️ Corky

“ In the blink of an eye. It was just a week ago (04/11/2019) that we celebrated G-ma Dee's 86th birthday. Rocky and the family were there to enjoy the day. We had a really nice time and I remember him rocking, feeding and and loving his little girl (Cazzy). He loved those kids so much. We're all going to miss him.
