“ Some of my fondest memories of childhood were spent on my Aunt and Uncle Lueken farm in Birdseye. Loved being with my cousins, playing in the barn and running the fields. but most of all, I loved watching aunt Rosalie cook and bake. I loved her art of being a wonderful wife, mother and homemaker. She made the best homemade noodles and rhubarb pie.

As her god daughter, I always looked forward to the Christmas gifts that she and Uncle Wilfred would send me.

My adult family on my dad, Gervase Lueken's side, is now complete in their heavenly home.

Have fun playing "sheephead" together.

Till we see each other again in our Heavenly home.
