“ Always remember visiting with Sally when my cousins from Texas were in town. She treated me just like family. Always trying to feed us some of her great cooking! Such a sweet and gentle spirit! Heaven gained a jewel!

“ Grandma Sally is loved by so many. I felt famous when I would come to Jasper and someone would identify me as one of Grandma Sally's grandkids. What a legacy she has created. She would worry if she was good enough for heaven and the response was always the same "if you don't get in Sally... That place is empty". She was our angel on earth and now she is our heavenly angel. We are blessed to have been touched by her.

“ *Monique renee Beard Jennett... Sally was my grandma. I remember when we came to visit she would make the best ruben sandwiches. She was a great loving lady she always loved to cook for her family and grandchildren. She loved being with us and playing card games. We loved walking to kmart from her apartment.
