“ Dear John & Janet, James, Paul & Paula, Margaret, Embert and I were very sorry to learn you have lost Rosemary. We loved her and Ezra, as did my parents and our children. I remember happy times visiting in your home when I was young, and our family loved our visits to Ezra's and Rosemary's home later. We also loved it when your father and mother visited my parents here in Denver. We always got to go over and enjoy the fun of visiting with them. Margaret was with them when they came to our house one time, and I also appreciated talking with Margaret when she was in Denver. We are very sorry for your loss. You are in our prayers. Love, Sylvia and Embert

“ Growing up, I knew Rosemary as part of Ezra and Rosemary, cousins who were adults and who really liked kids to be around. I always enjoyed seeing them, knowing we would be welcome. I recently got to visit with Rosemary in 2007 as I was with my parents (Ginny and Bob), Aunt Betty, Uncle Hugh, and my nephew, Jordan, on a trip to the area. It was a wonderful visit and I so enjoyed seeing her again. She was gracious and welcoming, as always. I am so sorry for your sadness and loss. Please know our family is praying for you.

“ Dear Binkley Family, I'm saddened by the death my Aunt Rosemary.
I loved being with her when I was young and before she was even married. I followed her around, used lotions that she used, I always wanted to be just like her when I grew up. She was a good role model and great person. You have been blessed with her as your mother. She and Uncle Binks have been reunited in Heaven. RIP Aunt Rosemary. Love ya, Sarah
