“ Many years ago, when we were young, Shirley and I worked together for Greater Jasper Schools. We had a lot of fun together.. I recall, one afternoon after class, we drove to Evansville, and she helped me adopt a puppy. That turned out to be quite an adventure! After we no longer worked together, I was pleased to teach her children in kindergarten. Although we lost touch in later years, I have many fond memories of the time we spent together. My sympathy goes out to Bernie, Stacey, Melanie and Jeremy, as well as to her brothers and sisters.. Shirley was a wonderful person, and I know she will be greatly missed.
