“ My sympathy to you and your families. Back many moons ago we bought a blue healer pup from Stan. I believe He worked with Gary at Artec. I did home health before and worked with Wanda. I was found of her as well, as she was a sweet lady. Stan I got to know over the years at Good Sam. We got along, and he would try for me when needing to work in therapy. One of my fondest memories was this past year, when residents were asked what they were thankful for, He responded "french fries and my 3 sons" It Made me smile. I will never forget that. I miss him already, walking by his door. My prayers are that you find peace in the memories over the years. May you find hope in our Lord and Savior, as we seek Him out, so we can plan on reunion in heaven one day. Find peace in Him.

My uncle, George (Bill) Haycox, and Stanley were next door to each other at The Timbers a few years ago. My uncle loved visiting with Stanley in his (Stan's) room. Bill had recently had visitors, who brought him a box of doughnuts. He took them to Stanley's room. Stanley had another visitor, and they shared. They each ate one, and Stan's visitor left. Bill said he didn't want to keep them in his room, so he and Stanley decided to finish them off. The nurse came in after that and took Stanley's blood sugar. The result was a very high reading. My uncle and Stan laughed when they told me the story. I know the nurse was not happy!
