“ Such a wonderful and talented human. Steve not only shared his music gifts but befriended everyone with his warm personality and kindness. It is no surprise he ended up as a CNA where his help to those who can't help themselves is so important. He continued to give of himself. This is such a sad and tragic loss. I will always remember Steve and his family for their kindness. I remember Steve's fluid voice but also that he made everything he played on the trombone sound meaningful. His gift of music simply showed the passion he had inside. Steve, please know you commanded the greatest respect from those who knew you.

“ We've known Steve for over 15 years. Thru all of life's trials he always remained kind, steadfast, and faithful. I think the thing I think of most is how much he loved his family, and how much he was loved by his family. He was like a younger brother to us, always willing to lend a hand. If anyone is singing in Heavens choir...it is Steve. Our hearts are holding you all in prayer...may God's arms, that are holding Steve, also wrap around you all and give you comfort, till you meet again. Norma & Steph

“ Steve Mann was just the kindest, young man there was. When he sang, wow what a voice. The first time I heard Steve sing was at a Jasper High School musical in the early 90's after High School he sang at Holliday World for a few summers. His beautiful voice was an incredible gift from God. Such a beautiful person is now singing with the angels. May God be with his Family, Paul, Linda and Paula Mann. My heart is breaking right now. You're in my thoughts payers.

“ I remember when Steve and our son Aaron were pretty young. We were camping at Lincoln State Park and so was Steve's family. The boys were so happy to be going cat fishing later that evening. A simple thing, but they were happy.
