“ Amanda, Sue, Sherri, Tim, and extended family, I wish I knew what to say to comfort you right now. She was loved by so many!!! I got to know Terri in high school. We became fast friends. We both were in the color guard in band. We spent A LOT of time together. I remember her unforgettable laugh, her sweet nature, and her love of Bon Jovi. I remember her interesting quirks. She drove with a foot on the brake and a foot on the gas. How did she do that? I remember trying and almost giving both of us whiplash. She couldn't smell. That was both a blessing and a curse. I wish I had been better at keeping in touch after Matt and I moved to Seattle. I thought about her often. I will cherish all of the fun times we had together. She will always be in my heart. Heaven gained a brand new angel. ❤️❤️

“ I'll never forget the time spent driving in her car (so cool as a freshman riding with an upperclassman), band contest band trips and her unending enthusiasm for this weird marching hobby we all embraced. She had a great spirit that survives her mortal departure...
