“ *Wonderful picture of our Nana! I miss our conversations while washing dishes together and rocking on the front porch, waiting patiently to blast the bees off the hummingbird feeders with water guns in the summertime! What a sweet character you are! We will remember your gentle kindness and fun spirited nature, until we meet you again on the other side of life! Love,

“ My precious Aunt Tessie, I loved her with all of my heart. I have so many memories of being with her as a child growing up. She took me to the movie theater where she worked on many Saturdays. She was one of the most lovable Aunts little girl could have. I will never forget her love for her "dolls" her collection was beautiful, just like her so sweet and so beautiful... what a reunion in Heaven she must be having, so many of our precious loved ones are there with her today...
Becky, Karen, Sandy, we love all of you so much wish we could be there to give big hugs.....
