“ Hello Foisy Clan! The Schott family was saddened to hear of Tom's passing. Many memories of our Italian neighbors who came from the North with so many kiddies! We became instant friends. A special memory was traveling up to Ft. Wayne to visit family with the entire crew in a station wagon! Lots of fun and food! I hold all of you in my positive thoughts and prayers. Wishing all of you a better day today than yesterday! Hugs to all of you especially you Paula!

“ Praying for his loved ones, that they feel the peace that comes from God, our great Comforter, and that they know deep in their hearts that Tom (always Mr Foisy to me) is perfectly healed and rejoicing in heaven. A big hug from me, Suzan Pinciotti (daughter of Don and Maria Whiteman)

“ Tom was my cousin, and growing up I was welcomed into their home when my mom became ill. I was the youngest in the group of cousins, and I still remember watching the older boys--including Tom--shave in the morning. Tom was a handsome fellow, as the photo proves, and later when he and Linda were married, I thought they were just about the most glamorous couple ever. The kindness and loving care that those siblings and their parents showed me during my childhood will always be remembered.

“ I will be forever grateful to Tom and Linda for the help and support they gave my daughter Marie when she moved to Jasper. I know there is another angel in heaven today.

I just have to share that Tom and I shared the same birthday- a few years apart. I feel lucky to know that.
