“ I just wanted to express my sympathy to Tom’s family and to share my memories of their father while growing up at Herald Printing. From the time I was tasked by my father to mop the floors to passing the bar exam, Tom was always an ally, mentor, and friend. While Dad would vacillate from Tom being the “best salesman in printing” to the guy who promised customers more than he could deliver, Tom was rock steady in my life. He took interest in my school work and then my cases. He was always willing to listen and give much needed counsel. I can hear that beautiful voice now, “Counselor,” he always addressed me after I became a lawyer. He made me feel like I had value as a person from the time I was pushing a broom to carrying a trial briefcase. I am thankful that God put Tom Hynes in my life.

Tom and Ruth were dear friends of Mom (Sue) and Dad (George). They both could make you laugh like nothing else Tom was witty, charming, intelligent and urbane. He knew so much about everything... and, was more than happy to give his perspective! May his Memory Be a Blessing and give comfort and peace of mind to his dear family. Tom loved telling me about his life in Chicago after learning that I had visited there a lot in my younger days. He and Ruth were good friends and we miss them both. We are sad for his children as they experience this loss.
