“ Obituary Correction: Dawn (Angie) Egler of Camby,IN and 12 Grandchildren not 9. Love and Miss you Dad!!

There is no obituary correction needed. Dawn Drew is your maiden, given name at birth and that is what is being used, so that people can tie you in with your father and how you are related. Angie's children are not related, biologically. Therefore, the family doesn't need to recognize them as his grandchildren.

Maybe they could have at least spelled Pittsboro correctly. And again your comment is not welcomed here. Funny how my maiden name is the only one used. But thanks for manplaining.

“ Mr Drew was always a very friendly happy man. From the time we met him over 20 years ago he was always very nice to myself and my husband. We met Him and Mrs Drew when his Daughter Dawn married Charlotte Egler. We got to see the Drew family on many occasions and always on Drew Eglers Birtthday. The Son of Dawn and Charlotte Egler. I believe the last time we saw Mr Drew was at the funeral of Charlotte (she passed after battling cancer). We are still great friends with Dawn and her new wife Angie. I know they will miss Dawns Dad. A passing of a parent is hard enough in the best of circumstance. The Corona Virus just makes things much worse.

This obituary has to do with Tim Drew, not the extra people mentioned in this above message. Condolences to the family is all that should be posted in these comments. Also Corona had nothing to do with his death.

Jeff your comment is the only comment that is not necessary. No need to be rude or disrespectful. Your hatefulness is not welcome here.
