GE

I never really knew your dad whatsoever but I'm pretty sure I graduated with him from JHS in '74. I've always remembered a pretty hilarious story from when we were together in freshman biology class dissecting a starfish. Somebody dared him to eat a piece of it and he did! (A small piece)

We were all wild and crazy back then and I really miss those days. I'm sorry for your loss, wish I knew him better during life, and may he RIP.
