“ Todd; we will miss you. cruising up Mill st. & always looking. seeing you & honkin-n-wavin. walking down the alley; stopping for a chat. Always A beautiful smile. upbeat& concerning of others despite any possible personal issues . not an ear bender; IF THATS GOOD. I remember when your family moved above us. My mom made a pot of chili & had me deliver it to you. I have wondered how far that went with 12+. I feel your family & loved ones. Rest In Peace FRIEND. GREG YOUNG.

“ Todd, I will always remember our talks with one another as I walked up Mill Street. You were normally hanging out on the porch. That's where we would catch up with how our families were doing. When you moved, it was strange not to see you there outside anymore. Our neighborhood was a great place to grow up, kids everywhere! Lots of wonderful memories! RIP Todd, Love and Prayers for the Traylor family
