“ John, Laurie and The Becher Family, I'm so sorry to read of the passing of Tommy. He was a wonderful person. It's hard to believe he'll not be around Jasper any more. He was always there, from when I was a kid; at work, playing ball, lunch out with Marilyn and always teasing someone. He and my mother Helen carried on for years, about Teresy, a ficticious gal who'd make late nite calls to the Becher home. They had a lotta fun. Tommy will be missed. Prayers and Sympathy, Sarah
