“ My heart goes out to all the Fischers at the loss of such a key family treasure as Mrs. Fischer. A special memory I have of her is that we were visiting her home on the farm with Dave...and mentioned we'd like to get our picture taken with the bull Dave had named after my husband Rich and the cows he named after me and my sister Laura. Mrs. Fischer looked a bit alarmed (undoubtedly thinking that us clueless city slickers would get ourselves killed) and as politely as she could muster warned us that we wouldn't want to get that close to any of them. I could tell by how startled she looked in her eyes that it was a stupid idea. But she was so gracious and kind to share her wisdom with us without making us feel silly. A very nice lady. Take care all of you. Our hearts are with you.
