“ Charlotte, Steve, Kenny and families I am so sorry for your loss. I have a lot of memories with all of you. We always had fun spending time with your family. I remember all of us in grandma's forbidden living room with your mom playing Christmas music and all of us singing together. Those days were happy memories. Your family was always special to me. I am sure he is smiling in heaven with Irene, Aunt Mary and Uncle Larry. They will be watching over you all. He will be missed I doubt I will be able to be at the mass. I am having a hard time getting around but my prayers will be for all of you. God Bless
